

Transcription of Podcast Episode 330: The Shadows Band

Thursday, April 14, 2022

SPEAKERS

Bob Firing, Dan Regeimbal

Note: This transcription was computer-generated and may contain typographical errors.

Bob Firing 00:09

Good afternoon Shadow Hills! If you don't want to go through all the traffic and feel a little old to go to Coachella this weekend, we've got a good alternative for you. The Shadows Band is going to be playing at Big Rock, and Dan Regeimbal is here to do a podcast to promote it. Dan, welcome to the podcast.

Dan Regeimbal 00:30

Hey, thanks a lot, Bob.

Bob Firing 00:32

So tell us what are the hours that you're going to be available are and then tell us tell us about the Shadows Band, what they can hear that?

Dan Regeimbal 00:42

Sure. Well, the hours at big rock, which is a really neat place to play, started off from 7:30pm to 9:30pm. But, we were pretty successful last time we played so the owners wanted us to play another hour this weekend. So it's 7:30pm to 10:30pm. So we play the classic rock tunes. And, it's the music that people that are retired would enjoy, because it kind of brings them back.

Bob Firing 01:11

Old time rock.

Bob Firing 01:12

A little Gloria, I mean, we do all that.

Bob Firing 01:16

And so, just in case people don't know, Big Rock is on Jefferson, as you're going toward Highway 111. It's on the right-hand side, down the street. And it is a rock and roll venue.

Dan Regeimbal 01:30

It is a rock and roll venue. Indian Springs, it's connected to that golf course.

Bob Firing 01:36

So, tell us a bit about the Shadows Band and how you got started.

Dan Regeimbal 01:40

Sure we got started in kind of a funny way. We wanted to have a group that, you know, played the songs that people just wanted to hear in our kind of age group. Started with Matt Felix, who's our drummer, and he put a little blurb about on the Nextdoor to get people to come to a little jam session. So that's where he found Rich Scales and Chuck Eversole. I didn't make the first one because I was out of town, but it came to the second one. The instant we played, we said, "oh, this is going to work." So from then on, we just said, hey, this is a great group of people to play. And we picked up our bass player, which was Jay Rockbank A little later. But Matt was a drummer, so he's the one who actually founded.

Bob Firing 02:31

And you're all residents of shadow Hills?

Dan Regeimbal 02:33

Not Jay, not Jay, he is not a member, because he lives out in Palm Desert. Matt was but he has since moved, but he's still a very very close.

Bob Firing 02:43

Okay, and so you've been playing clubs here. You've been playing you play at the Casuelas cafe.

Dan Regeimbal 02:51

Yeah.

Bob Firing 02:52

And now big rock now. So, that audience if you want an alternative to Coachella, and looking for a fun thing to do on Saturday night, go to the Big Rock Cafe at what time again?

Dan Regeimbal 03:04

7:30pm!

Bob Firing 03:05

Okay, and plan to stay until midnight. I think they're gonna be rockin'.

Dan Regeimbal 03:09

Oh, we rock.

Bob Firing 03:10

Okay, thanks for coming in Dan.

Dan Regeimbal 03:12

Thanks for having me, appreciate it.

Bob Firing 03:14
Until next time, bye bye.